

MONTANA

In the first half of 2023, Montana had 174 state hospital beds for adults with severe mental illness. This puts Montana at 14.4 available beds per 100,000 population.

Forensic Beds

54 state hospital beds (31%) are designated for forensic patients in Montana. The Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services did not reply to our request for further information on the status of state hospital beds in Montana. There may be additional forensic patients in beds designated for civil patients in Montana that are unaccounted for in this report.

Montana's rank among the states

#8 in beds per 100,000 population

#36 in percentage of beds occupied by forensic patients

Montana's State Hospital System:

Montana State Hospital, located in Warm Springs, is the only inpatient psychiatric treatment facility for adults with serious mental illness. It has 174 beds providing hospital-level care and an additional 42 beds in group homes.

